

Some local resident was full of the spirit of the Christmas season when he mailed a big gift package for a friend or relative, but it would have been better if he hadn't been quite so carried away. He wasn't too cautious about his address sticker, which came off en route, so that the package is home once more in the Torrance post office waiting to be claimed.

The package got as far as Ogden and probably even Butte, Montana. It is insured and contains a man's light Stetson hat. The owner of the 1x1½x2 ft. package is asked to contact the local postmaster, Mrs. Clara A. Conner.

Heavenly adventures will be the bill of fare January 15 and 16 as El Camino college pre-Harry Segall's comedy-fantasy, "Heaven Can Wait" at the Torrance High School auditorium. Tickets, are now available in the college ticket office, and curtain time is scheduled for 8 p.m. "Reservations may be made by telephoning the college at ME 4-6631 or PL 4-1421," according to Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, who also indicated that unpaid telephone reservations will be held until 3 p.m. Friday. Patrons may claim their telephone reservations at the box office on the evening of the play by mailing a check directly to the college. Checks should be made payable to the Associated Student Body of El Camino College, he clarified.

Starring in the one hour 40 minute play will be Paul Comi, Scott Young, Luaine Wickwire, Wayne Johnson, and Carl Larsen, all studying drama at El Camino. Directing is Burnett Ferguson, El Camino drama instructor.

During the final week of rehearsals, props and costumes are being obtained through the cooperation of local merchants and El Camino college. The numerous props range from a jump rope to a Pekingese dog, with the tempo of the fight "Heaven Can Wait" was made ring, including, among other into a movie, and moves along things, a bathtub murder.

NOTICE TO TORRANCE

We love to sell our '54 Mercurys and Lincolns but unfortunately we have to sell your trade-ins too—and truthfully our used car business is lousy — so far this month. So were going to wholesale them to Used Car dealers in Los Angeles . . . but first, we're going to give Torrance residents first chance at the 60 cars we have in stock from 41's to 54's at honest-to-goodness wholesale prices. Come down to the corner of Cravens and Torrance Blvd. and make an offer.
